

Mr. Chairman, I strong oppose any action that will place broadcast media in fewer hands. Diversity and true competition are keys to effectively serving the public interest. We don't need huge media conglomerates; we need more small, privately owned radio and TV stations, who lease programming from major providers.